NOT WORRIED BY THE TOBACCO TRUST DECISION

Managers of Factories Say Output Will Not Be Decreased, but It May Cause More Expensive
Methods.

[By Associated Press.]
Richmond, Va., May 30.—The supreme court decision in the tobacco trust case is viewed with little concern by the operating officials of the American Tobacco Company's huge factories here. They say it can not reduce the output while the demand is increasing for all kinds of tobacco, even snuff.

They expect, however, that more cumbersome and expensive operation of the various branches to be one result of the decision.

MASSACRE AND PIL- LAGE AT CHOLULA

Followed Attack by Rebels Which Was Resisted by Townspeople.
Forty Are Killed.

[By Associated Press.]
Puebla, Mexico, May 30.—Forty persons were killed, and the stores, government buildings and private homes were looted last night at Cholula, a town of 10,000 population eight miles from here.

The lawlessness followed a rebel attack which was resisted by the townspeople.

JUDGE FREEMAN AND THE I. & G. N.

Others Dying.

[By Associated Press.]
Lincoln, Neb., May 30.—The number of dead in yesterday's Burlington wreck near Indianola is now given as eighteen, with others dying.

BEGGING TAFT AND COLQUITT TO INTERVENE

Friends of Anti-Madero Conspirators
Want President of United States and Governor of Texas to Intercede.

[By Associated Press.]
San Antonio, Texas, May 30.—Appeals are to be made to President Taft and Governor Colquitt to use their influence to secure the release of W. L. Dunn and Dan DeVilliers, San Antonians, now imprisoned on a charge of conspiracy to start a new revolution in Mexico.

Governor Colquitt will be asked to appeal personally to Madero in behalf of the men.

MRS. STREIGHT GETS CHANGE OF VENUE

Case Transferred from Waco to Gatesville—District Judge Arnold
Will Try Case.

[By Associated Press.]
Waco, Texas, May 30.—The case of Mrs. Minnie L. Streight, charged with murdering her husband, has been transferred to Coryell county for trial. Mrs. Streight was convicted in a former trial at Waco and was granted a new trial on appeal. Judge J. H. Arnold is district judge at Gatesville, Coryell county.

MAY PROSECUTE MEMBERS OF TOBACCO TRUST

Case Different from Standard Oil and Criminal Proceedings Are Being Considered.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, May 30.—The department of justice today is carefully considering the possibility of criminal prosecutions of the individual members of the tobacco trust, which the supreme court yesterday ordered dissolved. Although Attorney General Wickersham would make no statement, he declined to say positively that no action would be taken.

None could be taken against the Standard Oil individuals, but this case is considered different.

Club, by which the track is being constructed, is in a healthy and progressive condition and the members are manifesting much interest in the club work. The stables at the track were completed some time ago and a number of horses are kept there. Messrs. A. F. Wilson, J. W. Dyer, E. S. Wickes and other members have horses in training there. An expert trainer is employed by the club. Mr. Bostick has had much experience and understands the training of race horses thoroughly.
